Summary of Typical Candidate Abilities

CEF	ALTE Level	Description
C2	5 Very Advanced	Research has shown that typical candidates at this level can: use the telephone persuasively and effectively; understand all but the most specialised letters and documents; put points persuasively when dealing with clients, and speak effectively and at length in meetings; write most kinds of letters and reports and take dictation on non-routine matters.
C1	4 Advanced	Research has shown that typical candidates at this level can: use the telephone for most purposes; understand quickly most letters and documents, with some dictionary help; deal with clients effectively, handling matters outside their own field; write most letters and reports with few errors.
B2	3 Upper Intermediate	Research has shown that typical candidates at this level can: use the telephone with good understanding; understand most reports and non-routine letters, with dictionary help; deal with clients and resolve most problems in their own field; write more complex messages and non-routine factual letters, if work is checked.
B1	2 Lower Intermediate	Research has shown that typical candidates at this level can: use the telephone for routine messages (e.g. arrangements for a meeting); understand routine letters and information about familiar products or services; deal with clients on routine matters (e.g. taking orders) and engage in limited conversation (e.g. talking about personal interests); write factual messages and routine letters, if work is checked.
A2	1 Elementary	Research has shown that typical candidates at this level can: use the telephone for simple messages (e.g. My flight is late. I will arrive at ten o'clock); state and understand simple messages or instructions; deal with clients by asking and responding to simple questions (e.g. Where is the post office?); write simple messages and letters following a standard model.
Below A1	Beginner	Research has shown that typical candidates at this level may know some phrases.
